Dryden Park represents the height of refined country living and is without question one of the most elegant homes in the region. Set on a garden site of 3325m² (approx.), the 2 storey residence has been designed and built with the style and symmetry of the Georgian period from materials salvaged from the original Crown Inn built in c.1836 by John Dryden, which stood on this site. Realistically priced, the property is the perfect family home, or weekender, minutes from Launceston, airport and the charming Georgian village of Perth.

The substantial and versatile internal accommodation is arranged over 2 floors and provides a fully serviced English kitchen complete with bespoke cabinetry, pantry, floor to ceiling subway tiling, butler sink, and picture windows with
